1	Learning: Ensuring all teaching is at least good, and the importance of PPG is reflected in planning and learning.
2	Learning and Lives: Retention and memory is weak and the children lack strategies to support retention.
3	Language: Vocabulary is limited and reading is not embedded in culture and routine.
4	Learning: Maths fluency has deteriorated during the uncertainty of the past two years.
5	Learning: Children have limited access to the wider world, including STEM and EXPERT subjects beyond school.
6	Lives: Pupil Premium children benefit from the development of the united ethos of seamless working together across both schools.
