

This week at Keresley Newland ...19.01.24....

Vocabulary:

Did you know this phrase was created by Shakespeare? Can you use it this week?

All that glitters isn't gold

Things are not as good as they appear to be

The Merchant of Venice, Act 2 Scene 7

Our VALUES

This week we are thinking about being RESPONSIBLE.

This week at Keresley Newland!

Dear Families,

We have had a lovely week at Keresley Newland with lots going on across school. Kensuke's Kingdom have enjoyed becoming scientists this week when investigating properties of different materials. They tried to sort objects into solids, liquids and gases whilst discussing whether any of the objects had changed

Attendance:

Best Attendance = Reception

Most Improved = Reception

Language, Learning, Lives!

RESPONSIBLE
EMPATHETIC
PROBLEM SOLVERS
ENTERPRISING
COLLABORATIVE TOGETHER

Picture and name of object	Properties	Does it ever change state? How?
Ice 	Solid, cold	yes. It melts into water.
wood 	hard rough	No.
Metal 	Solid smooth some -times.	✓ No.
ice tot cream 	cold solid squeeze	yes it melts into liquid

Key School Improvement News:

This week we have reviewed behavior approaches and supported our children with re-introducing 'pegs'. This sits alongside Thrive, Restorative Conversations and Emotion Coaching.

Emotion Coaching Scenario —a child bumps into you by accident and you get very cross and retaliate!

Step 1 – Recognise the child's feelings and empathise with them

wait for 10 seconds, to assess the situation

I can see you are feeling: angry.

Step 2 - Validate the feelings and label them

I can see you are so angry that you are.... clenching your fists together

I get angry when someone bumps into me

Step 3 – Set limits on behaviour – if needed

Separate the emotion from the behaviour

It's ok to feel angry if someone bumps into you, it's not ok to hit someone

Step 4 – Problem-solve with the child

When the child is calm, explore the feelings that caused the behaviour

Scaffold alternative ideas and actions.

Empower the child to believe they can manage the same experience in a different and more positive way.

What could you do next time someone bumps into you?

Reading Awards:

Oliver from Y2 and Jesse from Y1 (Neptune Bay) have achieved Gold and Silver Reading Eggs Awards!

Shae from Wonderland has spent most time reading this week!

This week's BOOK RECOMMENDATION:

For Darrell Rivers, there are friends to be made, pranks to be played and fun to be had at Malory Towers in Enid Blyton's best-loved boarding school series.

In book two, there is a thief about. Purses and jewellery are missing in the North Tower. Meanwhile Darrell is caught in the middle when her friend Sally is made head girl instead of Alicia. Will they find the thief and will Alicia and Sally make up?

Top tip for Online Safety:

Set limits on social

Personal Data:

It is your responsibility to keep your contact details up to date with the school office. Please note you can opt in or out of photo permissions at any time by contacting the school office or through studybugs.

Parking:

Our children's safety is our main priority and this includes their journey to and from school. No parking is permitted in the staff carpark. Please park around the school respectfully and not over private driveways. We would encourage walking to school where possible. It is not only great exercise, but also good for the environment.

Mobile Phones and Photographs whilst on the school site:

Keep mobile phones out of sight of children. You are not permitted to use mobile phones during the working day or to take photographs of children on personal devices. You must refrain from posting photos or recordings on social media, websites or any public forum.

Thank you for reading our news for the week, and we look forward to our next exciting week in school.

Mrs Penlington and all at Keresley Newland.
